

Marie Russo

Zig Zag Hub

Marie is a passionate, self-driven and energetic young business professional.

Marie was awarded IWIB Young Business Woman of the Year 2019 for her commitment and contribution to the Illawarra business and social community.

Marie is the Young Entrepreneurs Coordinator at Zig Zag Hub, organising and facilitating unique opportunities for young people to explore problem solving and creative thinking.

With over 10 years of experience in performance, public speaking, peer-to-peer mentoring and project-based learning, Marie has developed a strong passion for people and social justice.

Marie is currently studying a Bachelor of Law/Arts at the University of Wollongong and aspires to utilise her tertiary education and experience, to fuse a relationship between law, technology and justice.
