

MELISSA ABU-GAZALEH

Melissa Abu-Gazaleh is Founder and CEO of the Top Blokes Foundation, Australia's leading boy's social education organisation that supports young men's health.

She founded the organisation at age 19 and to date, Top Blokes Foundation has worked with over 11,000 young men.

Melissa has been named 2017 EY Social Entrepreneur of the Year, 2016 NSW Young Australian of the Year and Australian Financial Review Top 100 Women of Influence!

Melissa believes all young people can be change agents and follows the motto 'the best way to predict the future is to create it'.