

Sarah Nolen

IWIB Young Business Woman of the Year 2017

Sarah has always known that she would work for herself - that was always her goal. With 11 years' experience as an Interior Designer Sarah launched my her design business 'Birdblack Design' in 2014.

Sarah is an extremely driven woman who cares about what she create and how she creates it.

When not working Sarah loves being with her family and friends, whether that's watching her husband play AFL on the weekends with the Wollongong Lions, catching up with friends at her Church (Gateway City Church) or wining and dining throughout the Illawarra. The move from Canberra was one of the best decisions as it's provided her with unending opportunities.

Read Greg Ellis' story on Sarah Nolan at this link

<http://www.illawarramercury.com.au/story/4787562/wollongong-interior-designer-named-best-young-businesswoman-2017/#slide=2>

About Birdblack Design

Birdblack Design is an Interior Design studio located in the Illawarra. They provide a complete and customised service from the beginning to the completion of the project.

The heart of Birdblack Design is not simply to design beautiful homes and leave it at that... the aim is to recreate lifestyles for families in the Illawarra.

Birdblack Design offers a range of design packages to cater for the multitude. These packages have evolved from over a decade of experience. We have discovered which living spaces within a home people care most about and our packages range from Full Home Design to Kitchen or Bathroom and Laundry Design to name just a few.

They also cater to the commercial market for those business owners who want to make their retail or restaurant space stand out from the crowd.

With the Illawarra's growing number of boutique eateries and bars, Birdblack Design is an ever growing stamp within this new scene.