

Linda Goldspink-Lord

Linda Goldspink-Lord has worn many hats in her life - mother, daughter, wife, sister, entrepreneur, and now, that of author.

Linda's book Crawling Through the Darkness launched this year to great acclaim and media interest. At this inspiring lunch event, Linda will share her story.

- The challenges she's faced in her life, including the tragic death of her beautiful daughter Molly ten years ago
- Her journey to recovery and how she reconnected with life again after great loss
- How addressing her own health led to the inspiration behind her award-winning businesses
- How resilience and connection have helped her thrive as a business woman.

Linda was the IWIB 2021 Innovative Business Woman of the Year, and is an engaging, warm and empowering speaker.

You're sure to walk away with a new perspective on life and success after this event.

Connect with Linda on LinkedIn or via her website.

Linda's book will be available to purchase at the event, and Linda will be personally signing any copies on the day.