

Bianca Hunt

Founder | FLW Connect

2026 IWIB Best Home Based Business

2024 IWIB Best New Business

Bianca is a proud Gumbaynggirr woman who is accepted as kin by the Barkindji mob and accepted in the Latji Latji community.

She has over 20 years of experience delivering services and supporting Indigenous and non-Indigenous organisations and communities. She began her career in the community services sector and moved into the crisis support, suicide prevention, cultural safety, engagement, and consultation space.

Bianca has extensive experience across the sectors in facilitating training and support reconciliation, change management, and workplace cultural safety practices. She has a passion for working with change agents, volunteering, and innovative partnerships.

As the founder of FLW Connect which stands for Future Legacy Wisdom and Connection, Bianca has revolutionised the way organisations navigate and integrate cultural complexities into their strategies.

Bianca connects partners with government, education and corporate organisations to create safer, more inclusive communities through tailored training and strategic consultancy.

Bianca is a strategic consultant but is also a trusted mediator, facilitating meaningful dialogue and conflict resolution for organisations facing cultural challenges.

Her innovative training programs have equipped teams with the tools needed to redefine best practice in organisations.

Bianca (Mother of 7) just doesn't stop moving forward, her home office is the perfect place to create her work, but she also carves out time for supporting her family and volunteering for community being on 2 local committees where she can share her expertise.

Bianca's has an unwavering commitment to enhancing cultural competence across government and industries and the profound impact on both the individuals and organisations they serve.

Bianca Hunt was recently awarded the IWIB 2026 Best Home Based Business in recognition of her outstanding contributions to the field of cultural strategic consultancy.